Welcome!

On behalf of our Board of Directors (pictured below) and Executive Director Sara K. Dean, I welcome you to tonight's performance and hope you enjoy the presentation.

to continue our mission of developing quality theatre that both entertains and enlightens.

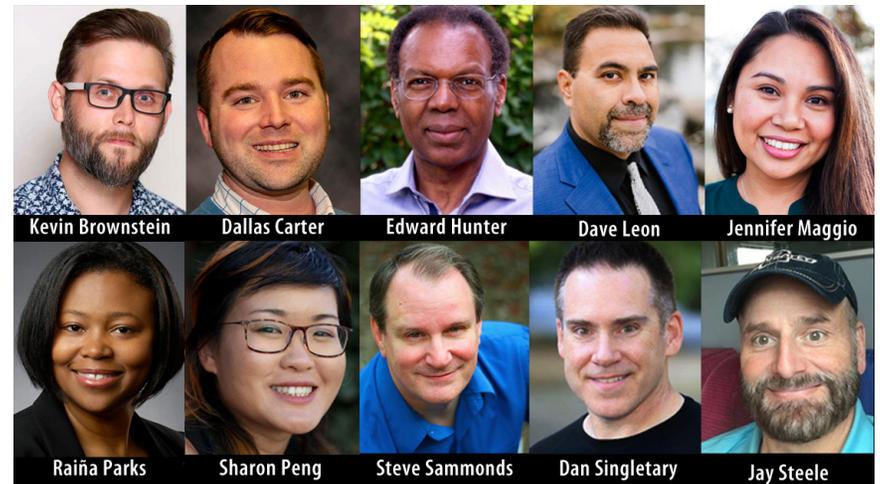

As we draw near to the close of a year marked by dramatic upheaval and a redefinition of "normal," we can't help but be both amazed and grateful by the way you, our audiences and patrons, have rallied behind South Bay Musical Theatre and our efforts to adapt. Please take a look at the list of donors at the end of this program; it's an amazing testament to our South Bay community and the value you place on the arts. In fact, since our last Readers' Theatre production (of Dracula, just seven weeks ago), 116 of you have made new donations in support of our efforts. We thank you very much, and pledge

We are hopeful that we'll be able to gather together in person sometime in the coming year. Until then, we remain committed to providing you with our virtual eStudio offerings, connecting with you in your homes and together keeping the arts alive. Suggestions are always welcome. Write to me at chairperson@southbaymt.com.

Meet the Cast

Nelson Brown (Christopher Isherwood) is so happy to be back in SBMT's thriving eStudio, after playing Lendall in Almost, Maine. A regular North Bay performer, some of his favorite roles include Cousin Kevin in The Who's Tommy (Novato Theater Company); Riff Raff in The Rocky Horror Show; Nathan Detroit in Guys and Dolls; The Adult Men in Spring Awakening; Callahan in Legally Blonde; Lewis in Pippin (Marin Musical Theatre Company); Vince Fontaine in Grease (Mountain Play); Miss Trunchbull in Matilda the Musical (Katia and Company); and Poins in Henry IV Part 1 (Curtain Theatre). Thanks and love to Nikki – and thanks to the cast and crew for this unforgettable experience! Instagram: @brownimation

Marla Hartfield Cox (Mrs. Watson-Courtneidge) is very excited to work with such a talented staff and cast in her first production with SBMT. Marla returned to musical theater in 2017 and has immersed herself in the Bay Area theatre community. Most recently she performed in Sister Act as Deloris (Stage1 Theatre), A New Brain as the Homeless Woman (Tabard Theatre Company), Queen of the Mist as Carrie Nation (Tabard Theatre Company), the 2018 Holiday Big Band Bash (JB Presents), Pippin as Fastrada (Marin Musical Theatre Company), Nia as Nia (Musical Cafe's Fall Showcase), and as Dionne in Hair (Landmark Musical Theatre). She dedicates her performance to her granddaughter Calypso, a dramatic actress in the making!

Sarah Masare Devulapalli (Narrator) is a Bay Area native. She graduated from Georgetown University in Washington, DC, where she completed two acting courses. After graduation, she studied at the S.F. School of Digital Filmmaking. I Am a Camera is Sarah's first production with SBMT, and she couldn't be more honored to join such an amazing cast. Sarah is an author whose debut middle-grade novel is currently under construction. She moonlights as a novice (but confident!) kalimba player, a perpetually-auditioning "star" for Dancing with the Stars, a Duolingo-fueled aspiring polyglot, and a benevolent sorceress. Her husband is her favorite human, ever.

Aleisha Lew (Natalia Landauer) is thrilled to be working again with SBMT! Born in California, she is currently a student at UC Irvine with a plan to get a BA in Drama. Her recent credits include Lia in Mask On, Mask Off; Ginette/ The Waitress in Almost, Maine; and Christy in 10 Ways to Survive the Zombie Apocalypse. In her free time, Aleisha enjoys photography, digital painting, and playing with her cats. She is so thankful for her friends, family, and mentors for supporting her on her journey and for being a part of her life. May your holidays be merry and bright!

Asha Kelly (Sally Bowles) is full of gratitude to SBMT for making theatre happen and including her in the cast of I Am a Camera. Prior to the pandemic, Bay Area audiences may have seen her as the beloved Elizabeth Darcy (née Bennet) in The Wickhams: Christmas at Pemberley (CLTC); ambitious henchwoman Tilly in Sherlock Holmes and the Secret of the Crown Jewel (Tabard); and the lovelorn Tessa in The Gondoliers (Lyric Theatre). Asha is also a singer, film actor, and screenwriter and as a member of the Lyric Theatre Board of Directors is working on strategies for a safe, inclusive return to live performances.

Miles Meckling (Fritz Wendel) was last seen in SBMT's Almost, Maine and is happy to be making his return for his second production with this amazing company! He is a graduating senior at CSU Sacramento, obtaining a Bachelors in Theatre. His credits include Daniel in Almost, Maine (South Bay Musical Theatre); U/s Usnavi & Piragua Guy in In the Heights (Berkeley Playhouse – postponed due to COVID-19); Pablo in Sister Act; and Romeo in Newsies (Woodland Opera House); Daniel in Seven Brides for Seven Brothers (William Jessup University); Deadite in Evil Dead (Sutter Street Theatre); Don Kerr in A Chorus Line (Green Valley Theatre Company); Chris in Sweat, Ensemble in In the Heights, Puck in A Midsummer Night's Dream, and Drake in Annie (CSU Sacramento). Miles believes that as artists we are tasked with advocacy for change, and showcasing a voice for the voiceless. He loves being able to tell stories and engage audiences in the ongoing dialogues that stimulate our society. He would like to thank his friends and family for all their love and support! Follow him on Instagram @Leroi23.

Rachel Michelberg (Fraulein Schneider) is excited to be returning to straight theatre. She was nominated for the Bay Area Theater Critics Circle award for best supporting actress as Mrs. Van Daan in The Diary of Anne Frank at Palo Alto Players. A mezzo-soprano, she has performed several leading roles with companies including Sacramento Opera, Opera San José, West Bay Opera, and the SF Pocket Opera. Favorites include the title role in Carmen and Rosina in The Barber of Seville. Musical theatre roles include Cinderella in TheatreWorks' Into the Woods, Anna in The King and I, and Eliza in My Fair Lady. She won a DramaLogue award for her portrayal of Marian the Librarian in The Music Man. Ms. Michelberg has been active as a Music/Vocal Director for productions including Sweet Charity, The Music Man, Oliver! and White Christmas. She was the cantorial soloist and choir director at Temple Emanu-El in San Jose for fourteen years. Her memoir, Crash – How I Became a Reluctant Caregiver is being published by SheWrites Press in April 2021. Ms. Michelberg lives in Los Altos Hills where she maintains a private voice and piano studio.

Mark P. Robinson (Clive Mortimer) has worked for the last decade as a jazz singer performing widely in the Bay Area. His theatrical credits include roles with Opera Parallèle, Cinnabar Theater, Oregon's Siletz Bay Music Festival, Woodminster Summer Musicals, 42nd Street Moon, Bay Area Musicals, and, with great delight, South Bay Musical Theater.

The Art & Process of Choreography

In this four-week “dance-on” class, we will explore some of the practical aspects of musical theatre choreography. We’ll talk about the process of creating choreography, collaboration with the director, working with dancers, and making magic!

Each week we will dance, laugh a bit, and have the opportunity to teach choreo to each other. This class will help build your skills focusing on vocabulary, process, experimentation, and communication with dancers. All skill levels are welcome. We can all grow by working with choreographers of every experience level. Truly.

- Week 1: Process and Collaboration. Movement vocabulary every choreographer should build. Musical staging homework assigned.
- Week 2: Musical Staging & Dance for Non-Dancers. Dance styles/choreographers and resources. Students present musical staging. Ensemble dance homework assigned.
- Week 3: Choreography as Story. The score as the guide. Students present ensemble dance. Dance canon homework assigned.
- Week 4: Finding your Method. Where do we go from here? Special group project? Students present dance canon.

Playwriting 101

How is a play written? Can I actually do it? In this hands-on series of four sessions spread two weeks apart, explore the essentials of creating a story and characters, and the structure and format of writing a stage play. We’ll also discuss the timely nuances of writing for online versus in-person performance. All of this toward writing and evolving your very own short-form play during this series! Whether you’ve done it before or not, this will be a great start or restart!

Doug Brook has written over 20 plays produced or otherwise recognized in festivals nationwide. Diane Milo has sung professionally for decades, and has been active in the Bay Area theatre community for the past 25 years. (See longer bios online.)

Thanks to our Donors

It's been a challenging year for arts organizations. We humbly and gratefully acknowledge the many friends of South Bay Musical Theatre for responding so enthusiastically and overwhelmingly to our repeated fundraising appeals. Note: we are in the middle of our annual fundraising drive; we apologize for any omissions.

Monthly Sustaining Members

When COVID-19 caused SBMT to cancel its traditional mainstage season for 2020-2021, we shifted to online programming and asked our donors to become Monthly Sustaining Members. Our deepest thanks to all those who stepped up to help bridge the gap by joining the list—or increasing existing contributions.

It takes many hands to make theatre magic happen!

South Bay Musical Theatre is a non-profit organization that is largely driven by its volunteers. Even now during this “pandemic pause,” we’re always looking for folks who like to share their talents in a variety of ways:

- ❖ Ushering
- ❖ Concessions
- ❖ Hospitality
- ❖ Box office
- ❖ Costumes
- ❖ Set building
- ❖ Painting
- ❖ Props
- ❖ Spotlights
- ❖ Stage crew
- ❖ Videography
- ❖ Photography
- ❖ Event planning
- ❖ Fundraising
- ❖ Grant writing
- ❖ Board of Directors

Whether you’re already skilled or just keen to learn, we have opportunities for you to join the fun of live musical theatre. If you’re curious, please email us at chairperson@southbaymt.com, call us at 408-266-4734, or go online at southbaymt.com/join-us/volunteer to let us know about your passions.

Set builders are always welcomed. Not handy with tools? We'll train you!

Learn how to run spotlights or the sound board—or join the fun backstage on deck crew.

Sell snacks or volunteer as an usher, and see the show for free!

Sara K. Dean
