“If you reach for all the stars, all you get are the stars,
But we’ve found a whole new spin!
If you reach for the heavens, you get the stars thrown in.”
— “Anything Can Happen” lyrics, Mary Poppins

In his 1947 essay, “On Fairy-Stories,” J.R.R. Tolkien countered the common presumptions about fantasy, both popular and academic. He rejected the idea that fantasy is essentially juvenile and that “escapism” is somehow spiritually or intellectually irresponsible:

“I have claimed that Escape is one of the main functions of fairy-stories, and since I do not disapprove of them, it is plain that I do not accept the tone of scorn or pity with which “Escape” is now so often used: a tone for which the uses of the word outside literary criticism give no warrant at all. In what the misusers are fond of calling Real Life, Escape is evidently as a rule very practical, and may even be heroic.”

I would not even condescend to label fantasy a “healthy coping mechanism,” as it provides more than just solace and reflection. It can prepare us for real experiences, both sublime and horrific. Like most people of my generation, I was introduced to Mary Poppins with a VHS tape of the Disney film, the TV and VCR being a sort of nanny in the 1980s. I was very young and thoroughly receptive to fantasy, as children are expected to be. As with most everything we loved as children and still appreciate as adults, there was much about it I did not yet understand. Why was there whimsy and magic in this setting of chimney sweeps, bag ladies, and stoic bankers? And

I had no idea what Cockney was supposed to sound like. Mary Poppins—the books, the movies, and the multiple subsequent incarnations—have maintained the “fantasy as therapy” in a setting of the grounded realities of city life, the economic uncertainties of the middle class, and the hard truths of the working stiffs. Mary herself is something of an embodiment of our unrealistic expectations of professional caregivers.

As I write this in the thick of tech rehearsals, it is all very real. But more than ever I am motivated to use this rare and marvelous opportunity to unleash this fantasy, these characters, and the talent of these performers for a few hours. The era of mass telecommunications makes us all aware of more tragedy and uncertainty than we were evolutionarily equipped to process. Maybe fantasy can’t prepare us for all of it. But everyone could use at least a spoonful of sugar.

meet the cast

Kathryn Class (Bird Woman, Ensemble) is ecstatic to be making her SBMT debut! Working with SBMT... and on Mary Poppins, no less, eek!... is a dream come true! Kathryn has been seen onstage with WCT and CRT. She is so grateful to her family and friends who've encouraged her in her pursuit of musical theater performance.

Gabriela Crolla (Miss Smythe, Ensemble) is so excited to be a part of SBMT's production of Mary Poppins! Other recent performances with SBMT include their 60th anniversary benefit concert last year, and On The Town in 2022. She studied at Cal Poly, where she earned her BA in Music in 2017, and later graduated with an MA in Vocal Performance from SJSU in 2021. Gabriela is a music educator in the San Jose Bay Area and teaches elementary school music as well as private voice and piano lessons. In her spare time (whenever she can!) Gabriela enjoys going on hikes and spending time with her friends.

Katy Darrow (Katie Nanna, Bear, Ensemble) (she/they) is excited to be a part of their first SBMT production! Katy recently graduated from SJSU with their Bachelor's in Music Education. While in school they took part in several productions, including playing a jury member in Trial by Jury and being a featured soloist/ensemble in Considering Matthew Shepard. Currently, Katy is working on pursuing their teaching credential for Music. When not studying or performing, they enjoy crafting, gaming, reading, and singing. Katy is elated to jump back into the world of theatre and is thankful for SBMT for welcoming them into their family!

Benjamin Hatch (George Banks) is thrilled to return to SBMT for another incredible production and feels privileged to be part of this incredible group of artists. Favorite previous roles at SBMT include Harry in Company, Georg in She Loves Me and Huck in Big River. Ben is incredibly grateful to be sharing the stage again with his very talented wife, Brittany. To our in-real-life Mary Poppins nanny team of family and friends who took care of our “two adorable children” while we’ve been putting on this show: Bravo and thank you. You’re all “practically perfect” in our book, and we are so grateful to you for making it possible for us to help share this beautiful and joyful story.

Brittany Hatch (Nymph 2, Ensemble) is thoroughly enjoying the opportunity to join her husband on stage! Before playing her all-time favorite role as Mama to their three precious boys, she enjoyed being an Ensemble member in The Drowsy Chaperone (SCP) and singing Soprano in the choir for The Hunchback of Notre Dame (SBMT). She has worked as a project manager in branding and advertising, and is currently pursuing a career in Interior Design. She enjoys portrait photography, baking, hiking, and coaching her son Luke’s soccer team. Thanks to our ever-supportive family and friends for making this special experience possible for us—it’s a “step in time” we won’t soon forget. And to my Mr. Banks, thank you for your encouragement throughout this adventure and for your support always. I love the Cherry Tree Lane we’ve built together.

Barbara Heninger (Miss Lark, Ensemble) finds herself interacting with a small dog for the fourth time in her theatre career (including stealing Toto as the Wicked Witch in The Wizard of Oz with PAP, 2023, and losing Cheeky as Evangeline Harcourt in Anything Goes with HBT, 2019). Recent roles include the Earl of Gloucester in SVS’s all-female-presenting King Lear (2023) and ensemble/understudy for Mme. Armfeldt in SBMT’s A Little Night Music (2024). She has performed at theaters throughout the Bay since 2009, acting, singing, dancing, and chasing canines. Arf!

Tim Huang (Northbrook, Policeman, Ensemble) is excited to join this practically perfect SBMT production. His previous credits include the Steward/Ensemble in WVLO’s Young Frankenstein and Waldo Fagment/Ensemble in SBMT’s On the Town. Much gratitude to Jan, Joe, and Victor for their supercalifragilistic love and support and to Nicole Cooper for giving my vocals precision and order.

Andy Kline (Miss Andrew, Queen Victoria) is extremely excited to be portraying her very first villain...on stage. She was last seen as Hesione in WVLO's 2023 production of Triumph of Love. An experienced professional vocalist and choral conductor, Andy has the pleasure of serving as WVLO's Resident Vocal Director, and recently had the pleasure of vocal directing for SBMT's production of Rent. And if you enjoy DIY trash-to-treasure furniture makeovers, you can catch Andy over on YouTube, in her one-woman-show; Furniture Fables by Andy! @andy_kline_ @furniturefablesbyandy

Angela Konigsberg (Mrs. Brill, Ensemble) is returning to the role of early 20th century maid with an accent for the third time, having previously played Mrs. Brill in SVCT's 2016 production of Mary Poppins as well as Brigit the maid in LTSJ's production of Ragtime last summer! She's also appeared in LTSJ's productions of Iolanthe (both 2015 and 2023), Brigadoon, and La Périchole. Other favorite past roles include Mrs. Modesto in Mrs. California, Julie Jordan in Carousel, Grandma Tzeitel in Fiddler on the Roof, and Moonbeam McSwine in L'il Abner. Angela is a huge Disney fan and a former Walt Disney World character and parade performer who spent a lot of time hanging out with a couple of mischievous chipmunks. This is her first show with SBMT.

Victoria Mannah (Fannie, Toy Soldier, Ensemble) (she/they) is delighted to debut with SBMT in Mary Poppins. You may have seen her recently in Netflix's Stranger Things: The Experience (2022) in San Francisco or performing with Lamplighters in their operatic rendition of Gilbert & Sullivan's The (New) Mikado or Il Ducato in the summer of 2023. Victoria's passion for acting inspires her to share her enthusiasm with students of all ages as a vocal teacher with Dublin Guitar Center. She has previously worked as a teaching artist directing children for several years with various theatre companies. In her free time, Victoria enjoys learning about herself and the world through travel. She would like to express her gratitude for the support of her best friend, her boyfriend, and her family.

Ciara McCarthy (Jane Banks) (she/her) is thrilled to make her SBMT debut alongside her real-life and on-stage sibling Róisín (Michael Banks) and such an amazing cast and crew! Ciara is from San Francisco, where she is finishing the sixth grade. She loves singing, dancing, playing the piano, and acting. She recently performed as a reindeer dancer in A Charlie Brown Christmas with SFS at Davies Symphony Hall, and she'll appear next as Shprintze in Fiddler on the Roof (PSP). Other favorite roles include Miss Honey in Matilda and Clarisse in The Lighting Thief (both at 42SM's MoonSchool). Ciara dances at Star Dance Studio and studies voice with Jorell Chavez. She would like to thank her friends and family for loving and supporting her and hopes you enjoy the show!

Róisín McCarthy (Michael Banks) (she/her) is ecstatic to be making her SBMT debut with this incredible cast and crew! Róisín is finishing fourth grade in her hometown, San Francisco. She most recently appeared in Salute to Broadway (Peninsula Lively Arts), and she'll be seen next as Bielke in PSP's Fiddler On the Roof in August. Other favorite roles include Matilda in Matilda (42SM's MoonSchool) and Adam in Freaky Friday (SSPA). Róisín enjoys baking treats, reading, singing, playing piano, and taking dance at Star Dance Studio. She would like to thank her family and friends for all their love and support.

Whitney Moore (Winifred Banks) is thrilled to be in her first show at SBMT. She is currently pursuing a BFA in Drama at NYU Tisch School of the Arts and recently completed a Theatrical Agent Internship at Creative Artists Agency (CAA). Favorite past performance credits include Beth in Little Women (LASC), Kim in Bye Bye Birdie (SCP), and Belle in Beauty and the Beast (CYT). In her spare time, Whitney studies the complexities of sprinkles. Many thanks to her family, friends, and most importantly, her cat, Butter (recently named second fattest cat in the history of the Reed Animal Hospital). Whitney is also Founder/Artistic Director of CROWNE! Check us out at www.crowneprincess.org! Instagram: whitney.not_houston.

Lex Rosenberg (Bert) (they/she/he) is thrilled to make their SBMT debut in one of their favorite shows. A multi-faceted performance artist both onstage and off, Lex was last seen onstage as Uncle Jocko/LA in Gypsy at HBT, and most recently lurked backstage as the ASM for HBT's recent production of The Sound of Music. Mariah Jade Taylor (Jane Banks) is a fifth grade honor student in Morgan Hill. Her passion for singing and acting started at the age of six at CMTSJ, where she performed in many productions including James and the Giant Peach (Aug. 2019), Snoopy (Jul. 2021) and Descendants (May 2022). Rowan Wilson (Annie, Nymph 1, Columbina, Ensemble) (they/them) was last seen in the Ensemble of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory (CMTSJ Marquee) and as a Laker Girl in Spamalot (WVLO). They grew up doing competitive dance as a kid at T & Co Dance Center. Their favorite style of dance is tap and that is one of the main reasons they wanted to join this show.

Qian Zhang (Mrs. Corry, Ballerina, Ensemble) is thrilled to be back for her second consecutive show with SBMT after appearing in A Little Night Music earlier this season. The songs and dances of Mary Poppins have captivated her since childhood, and she is ecstatic for the opportunity to bring them to life on stage. Outside of theatre, Qian enjoys food, cozy days, and learning new skills.

Gregg Zigler (The Chairman, Valentine, Ensemble) remembers the first time he went to a movie theater. It was as a very young child with his parents and brother to see the movie Mary Poppins when it was first released. He was delighted. Today's production is Gregg's second SBMT musical based on a film; Promises, Promises (2013) was his first. Brennah has appeared in numerous productions with OSJ, including one performance as Il Paggio in Rigoletto. Brennah graduated summa cum laude with a BFA in Musical Performance from NDNU, where she performed such roles as Martha in The Secret Garden, Olive in ...Putnam County Spelling Bee, and Mrs. Segstrom in A Little Night Music.

Yichun Li (Lighting Designer) recently graduated from UCLA as a Computer Science major and Linguistics minor, but she's pivoting to embrace her passion and pursue theatre professionally. Some previous lighting design credits include Sweeney Todd (HTC) and The Merchant of Venice (TKA). She's so grateful for SBMT for giving her the opportunity to work on this show and with such an amazing production team!

Scott Ludwig (Director) is a graduate of SFSU's theatre arts department. He began directing in high school and has since worked as an actor, puppeteer, set designer, and in product prototyping. Currently serving as resident Production Manager at OSJ, Scott has designed for SCP, PAP, SFLO, and AASC. Directing credits include The Three Sisters, A Midsummer Night's Dream, Macbeth, and The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (abridged).

Walter M. Mayes (Artistic Director) made his triumphant return to the stage (after a 20-year absence) in the title role of 2008's Man of La Mancha. After years of directing shows for us (The Producers; A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum; Promises, Promises; Hairspray; The Genius of Leonard Bernstein; 1776; Chess in Concert; Peter and the Starcatcher; A Gentleman's Guide to Love & Murder; Welcome to the 60s; and, most recently, A Little Night Music); he has taken on the Artistic Director position and looks forward to guiding SBMT through its seventh decade. Walter is the librarian at The Girls' Middle School in Palo Alto.

Karyn Morton (Production Manager) (she/her) A San Jose native, Karyn attended the Foothill Theatre Conservatory before getting her Bachelor's at UC Irvine. Favorite past productions include Silence at The Nixon (Direction), Goddess at Berkeley Rep (Wardrobe Supervisor), Steel Magnolias at TWSV (Assistant Director), Lizard Boy at TWSV (Light Board Op), and Doris in Miracle on 34th Street at CRT.

Don Nguyen (Projections Designer)

Recent projections design credits: SBMT's A Little Night Music, Rent; Ópera Cultura's Très Minutos; SJSU Opera Theater's Bernstein's Mass; SJSU Choraliers & The Choral Project's Considering Matthew Shepard. Don's performing credits: She Loves Me (Maître D') with SBMT, OSJ's chorus member (2018-19 season), and The Little Mermaid with SCP. Don enjoys photography, petting cats, and—after watching SBMT's Mary Poppins—he will find some free time this summer to go fly a kite.

Y. Sharon Peng (Costumes, Hair, and Makeup Designer) has been designing at SBMT since My Fair Lady in 2017. A guild member of IATSE Local 706, Sharon is also head of Hair & Makeup at OSJ and of the Merola Opera Program at SFO. Recent productions include Birds & Balls (Wigs & Makeup, Opera Parallele), The Chinese Lady (Costumes, Pear Theatre), and Florencia en El Amazonas (Wigs & Makeup). For other upcoming performances of a whimsical, fantastical nature, see also Head Over Heels at Berkeley Playhouse (Costumes). To see a portfolio of work across two decades, visit ysharonpeng.net.

Noah Price (Associate Lighting Designer)

found his place backstage during junior high after missing the auditions for Cheaper by the Dozen. The shadows suited him, and he went on to design lighting for over 100 musical, drama, and dance productions by the end of college. He has been designing stage lighting ever since, including shows around the Bay Area from San Francisco to Morgan Hill. Recent lighting designs include Rent (SBMT), Cinderella (WVLO), and The Little Mermaid (TKA).

Noelle Wilder (Choreographer) (they/them) is thrilled to be a part of the SBMT team as their choreographer. Noelle is a Deaf dancer, actor, educator, and artist who has been working closely with SBMT to create Deaf friendly and accommodating spaces where all Deaf performers and audience members feel included and welcome. Most recently, Noelle has choreographed for Moana Jr, Lion King Jr, and Frozen Jr (Stage 1), Bay Area International Deaf Dance Festival, and Deaf After Dark. They have also shared their bilingual talents on stage as the Scarecrow in The Wizard of Oz (PAP), Joseph in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat (Stage 1), Wish Upon A Star (PPF), and at Disneyland. During the day when Noelle is not rehearsing or performing, they are an early childhood education teacher at California School for the Deaf Fremont. Noelle would like to thank their tiny humans for their endless amounts of energy that inspired some of the fun and silly movements you see on stage!
